

REVISED ANNOUNCEMENT
March 30, 2020

In compliance with Governor Hogan's Stay-at-Home directive to slow the spread of the COVID-19 corona virus, Kent County Public Library will be closed until further notice.

Book drops are closed and we are not accepting returned items at this time. Please keep any materials you have checked out until the library reopens. No late fees will be charged while the library is closed.

All KCPL programs have been canceled through Saturday, May 30.

All meeting room reservations have been canceled through Saturday, May 30.

KCPL staff can be reached by emailing referencedesk@kent.lib.md.us

Because this is an evolving situation, additional changes and updates may be posted at a later date.
