

Art Exhibit Policy

All exhibits shall be prepared, hung, and dismantled by the artist under the supervision of the Art Advisory Committee according to the following guidelines:

- No hardware except that provided by the library shall be used;
- No tags or other adhesives shall be used

The artist shall be responsible for:

- All insurance on art work
- Appropriate framing or suitable display of work
- Pick –up, delivery, storage or shipping of art work
- Submitting a completed release form to the library director prior to the exhibition

Exhibits shall be open to the public only during the hours the library is open.

People interested in purchasing a work may contact the artist directly.

If a sale is made, the artist is welcome to make a donation to the library.

No artwork will be removed until the exhibit is over.

The library is not responsible for damage to or theft of any artwork exhibited.

The library and committee members reserve the right to reject works deemed inappropriate for a family library.

Approved by the Library Board

Date: April 8, 2013